Have you ever worked for a political campaign? If so, please describe. Yes, several

Have you previously run for and/or held a public elected office? If so, please describe.
Yes, currently elected to office and running for a second term. I also ran for State Representative in 2008.

Please provide any other general information you feel may be appropriate. Since elected I have gotten the board to attend more conferences, which has lead them to raise our wages. They have also looked to hire more Spanish speaking employees. During our recent remodeling project we installed some LED lighting and I showed them as Treasurer how much we saved on electric, so they voted to change even more, and are looking to change everything to LED. We are also installing a Monarch Butterfly way station. We are also discussing not charging late fees, so everyone can use the Library. We have put policies in place to protect all genders, races, religions, etc. not just general, but specific language to protect. All staff has been trained in sexual harassment. Just to name a few things.
